Mean Well constant voltage power supply HLG-150H-24B

The HLG-150H-24B power supply from the renowned brand Mean Well is an efficient 151W power device, providing stable power at 24 V output voltage and 6.3 A current. It is characterized by IP65 leak class, making it resistant to water and dust. The use of advanced technology guarantees reliable operation and high energy efficiency.
