Mean Well constant voltage power supply HLG-240H-12A

The HLG-240H-12A power supply by Mean Well is an efficient unit with a power of 192 W and a constant voltage of 12 V. It is characterized by an active PFC function and short circuit, overload and overvoltage protections, which guarantees reliability. The metal housing provides resistance to atmospheric conditions according to class IP65, allowing use in difficult environments.
